Frame 3-13 are a Swansea based trio who are young, determined and undeniably funky. They are one of a kind and do not follow the trends, they set them!

Frame 3-13 are different, but extremely accessible. The trademark Frame 3-13 sound combines Pop hooks with funk riffs and the charismatic vocals of Jack Brimacombe sending a message.

Their unique style and image has already caught the attention of Kinks frontman Ray Davies, so much that he came to see the band perform live in London. He praised the band's potential and in particular the song writing and stage presence. During their 8 month DIY Tour of the UK, the band has developed a keen following. They have supported the likes of Ghosts (Atlantic Records) and Spider Simpson (Polydor) and are battling their way upwards through the industry.

They are a band with a huge work ethic. You can see that by the dedication they have to any person that's interested in their music. Frame 3-13 first came to my attention on Myspace. And when I asked the band for a demo CD, they asked for my address and sent one out to me free of charge with a personalised handwritten note!

With an average age of 20 years old Frame 3-13 can show a raw aggressive side when performing live with songs like "The World Dont Stop" which is a hit amongst most the lads. But when they perform their softer tracks like "Fall Into Something" they show their maturity which captures the ladies hearts. This means that they share a special rapport with the vast majority of every audience they play to. As other bands try to congratulate Frame 3-13 after a top performance they find themselves stuck behind a swarm of fans! This band is a spectacular live act!

When I ask Frame 3-13 about their aspirations they keep it simple. They want to sell records, break records and be respected as a huge chart act for years to come. With their determination, belief and talent it seems certain that they will achieve those goals.

You can be sure that Frame 3-13 are a band to keep an eye on. They are in this for the long term and have a big future! All they need is for their preparation to meet that big opportunity.
